

Port Chicago Naval Magazine

National Memorial

 Entrance to Port Chicago National Memorial

PLAN YOUR VISIT

Overview

Camping

Facilities

Fees

Lodging

Nearby Attractions

Weather and Climate

Operating Hours & Seasons

Available by appointment only.

Local Partners & Information Resources

Port Chicago Committee

Base Realignment and Closure 2005

Getting There

Plane

The Memorial is about a 45-60 minute drive from either the Oakland and San Francisco International Airports.

Car

From Oakland/Berkeley, take Highway 24 east to Walnut Creek. Merge onto Interstate 680 north, towards Sacramento. Merge onto Highway 242 north to Concord. Exit Port Chicago Highway north to the Concord Naval Weapons Station.

From Sacramento, take Interstate 80 west. Exit onto Interstate 680 south to Martinez. Exit onto Highway 4 east to Concord. Exit onto Port Chicago Highway north to the Concord Naval Weapons Station.

Getting Around

Visitors are escorted by Park Service staff which includes free transportation and a guided tour.

Search

Search this park

Search nps.gov

Home

Accessibility

Activities

Plan Your Visit

Employment »

Volunteer »

Contact Us »